

Partners in GRACE

The Congregation at Brown Chapel Baptist

Brown Chapel Baptist Church Jenksville, SC February 9

Rick Gibson, Pastor of Brown Chapel Baptist Church in Jenksville, SC, asked Ken Yates to speak at their Sunday morning service. Ken spoke on the Parable of the Four Soils in Luke 8. The congregation seemed to enjoy the message. After the service, a number of people stayed behind to discuss the meaning and application of the parable.

Ken usually attends and speaks at Little River Baptist Church in Jenksville. Both Rick and Ken expressed the desire for both churches to do things together, including providing a food pantry for the community. They plan on doing a joint Easter sunrise service.

A benefit of an Indian church is the food!

Believer's Bible Chapel Carrolton, TX February 16

It was great to be here for a second time. I first spoke there a year and a half ago. This is an Indian Plymouth Brethren assembly. Most of the adults in the church were born in Kerala, India and speak both English and Malayalam.

The Congregation at Believer's Bible Chapel

In the men's Sunday school class I spoke with no translator on John 8:30-32 and "The Truth Shall Set You Free." In the Bible teaching hour I spoke with a translator on Jas 2:14-17, "Faith without Works Is Dead." It seemed like one of the best sermons of my life. Going back and forth with the translator made it more powerful.

I enjoyed an Indian lunch afterwards, though I was a bit red-faced when I bit into something spicy in the beef.

Bob with Pastor Carl Sutter and Paul Ludwick

Foundations Church Loveland, CO February 23

GES partners Paul and Patti Ludwick lined me (Bob) up to speak on assurance at their church, Foundations Church. Though they do not have Sunday school classes, I spoke in a special class to about 38 people. We had great interaction.

That night I spoke at a group Paul and Patti lead in their home with 4 or 5 other couples. Pastor Carl Sutter was also able to attend. I spoke on three oft misunderstood words: faith, repentance, and judgment. The discussion was great.

The class at Foundations Church

Prayer Requests

Please pray for: the spiritual and physical health of the GES staff and their families (Shawn, Mark, Bethany, Bob, Kyle, and Ken), the health of the conference speakers and conferees, the finances of our fellow partners, conference registrations and planning over the final two months, GES financial support, our magazine and journal and special publications, and for the Grace movement.

Letters

"I'm so thankful for GES. Keep up the good work of spreading the message of grace!" ~CM, Jackson, MS

"We are so looking forward to the conference this year!" ~Email

"I never heard of "Free Grace" before, but you're right on the money, that's what I believe. Thanks for the magazine! ~A Baptist pastor

Nineteenth Annual GES Conference Paul's Epistle to the Romans Fort Worth, Texas April 21-24

The schedule is set and was printed in the March-April magazine and is on our Facebook page. Registrations are well ahead of last year. It appears we may exceed the previous year's total for conferees, for the third year in a row.

We have an outstanding theme: Paul's Epistle to the Romans. We will explore the book and its contribution to the grace message. We would appreciate your prayers that registrations would increase, especially among new people who have received the magazine and an invitation to the conference for the first time.

Coming Soon

The Atonement and Other Writings (Hodges), Absolutely Free (Hodges), The Road to Reward (Wilkin), and the Spring 2014 issue of the Journal of the Grace Evangelical Society should be going to the printer by the end of the month.

Grace on the Go

Mar 7-8	ETS Regional, SWBTS, Ft Worth, TX (Bob)
Mar 7-8	Wesleyan Theological Society, Nampa, ID (Shawn)
Mar 9	Lake Hazel Bible Church, Boise, ID (Shawn)
Mar 14-16	Grace Comm. Bible Church, Sandy, UT (Bob)
Apr 21-24	GES Annual Conference, SWBTS, Riley Center, Ft. Worth, TX
Apr 27	Victor Street Bible Chapel, Dallas, TX (Bob)