Fairfield County (SC) Gideons March 10

Ken Yates spoke at the Fairfield County, South Carolina monthly meeting of the Gideons. The sole mission of the Gideons is to put copies of the Bible into the hands of as many people as possible throughout the world. They had heard about Ken's teaching overseas and wanted to know more about it. Ken gave a message of the Gospel of Grace and how he had taught in Bible colleges in Costa Rica, the Philippines, and Nepal. He explained

People who love giving out the Word

how there was a need for grace teaching in foreign countries because they have very little Free Grace material in other parts of the world. The Gideons were very nice and very interested in what Ken had to say. Some wanted to know when he was going to additional teaching overseas. Pictured is Ken with the Gideons.

Logos Mobile Education Course on Free Grace Theology (FGT) Bellingham, WA March 13-19

My thanks to GES Partner Bill Fiess who convinced Logos what it would be a good idea to invite me (Bob) to present a week-long course for Logos Mobile Education.

Sharon and I flew to SeaTac and then drove to Bellingham. Sharon was able to go to Victoria, Canada, for a few days with GES Partner Babbette Tyler.

This course has 70 segments which average around 10 minutes each. When it is available there will be around 12 hours of video which you can play on Logos, if you have the software, or on your phone, laptop, Apple TV, TV using Roku, etc. This course should be great for Sunday School, home Bible studies, discipleship groups, homeschooling, Bible colleges, seminaries, etc.

I cover the following nine areas: saving faith, assurance, accountability (the Judgment Seat of Christ and the Great White Throne Judgment), sanctification via the Word, Lordship Salvation, FGT in Church History, FGT in relation to Calvinism and Arminianism, FGT's understanding of key words, and FGT's understanding of key tough texts.

The Lord blessed greatly during the filming. Walter and Daniel and I worked very well together. Everyone at Logos was very friendly to me and Sharon. It was a very enjoyable week.

The course will go on pre-sale sometime in the next few months. I recommend you buy it then if you are interested as it will be around half price (that is, around $150 to $200 instead of $250 to $350). If you are interested, let Mark know (ges@faithalone.org) and he will keep a list and notify you when it goes on pre-sale.

Here is Ken looking innocent.

Ken in Prison Bishopville, SC March 14

A seminary in South Carolina has an outreach to the prisoners in the state, where they give a two-year degree to prisoners who complete the classes they offer inside the prison.

On March 14, Ken Yates was asked to speak at the completion of a Bible study led by one of the prisoner graduates, which included communion.

Pictures are not allowed in the prison, but this is Ken outside of the prison in Bishopville, SC. It is a maximum security prison and the study had about 40 students.

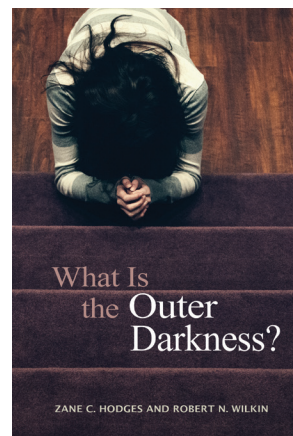

Ken spoke on the assurance of salvation from the Gospel of John and the certainty of Christ's return. Ken and one of the chaplains in the prison have introduced the leader of the study to free grace material. He is very excited about it and constantly reads and studies the books that come from GES.

Spotlight on Your Support

January through March went well. There were several special gifts which really helped. Thank you for your partnership in this ministry.

Our budget for the 2nd Quarter (Oct-Dec) was $122,493. Thanks to a strong December we took in $195,474.

Because of the strong support, we are planning several ways to expand our ministry. We are considering hiring a full-time person to help us with social media, marketing, YouTube, and internet radio.

We are also contemplating starting a school.
